

Scriptwriting (BA)

This program offered by School of Communications/ Communications and Journalism Department and is available online via asynchronous modality and at the St. Louis main campus.

Program Description

The major in Scriptwriting provides students with a structured approach to understanding the craft of writing scripts for film, television and other electronic media. By analyzing scripts and producing their own creative work, students learn character development, plot, structure, suspense and tension, as well as the conventions of various genres.

Learning Outcomes

Successful graduates of this program will be able to:

- Use appropriate industry standard for format.
- Employ the elements of storytelling for visual media (action, image, dialogue).
- Demonstrate effective structural strategies.
- Present engaging characters.
- Combine suspense, tension and other techniques to affect an audience's emotional response.
