Study Abroad at the International Campuses

Webster University undergraduates and some graduate students may spend a term or more studying abroad at one of Webster University's international campuses, without interrupting their progress toward a degree at Webster.

All Webster University students enrolled at a United States campus must contact the Office of Study Abroad in St. Louis for study abroad advising, planning and information on how to apply. No Webster student may participate in a Webster University program that involves studying at an international location without approval from the Office of Study Abroad. Webster students enrolled at an international campus who want to study abroad should work with the study abroad coordinator at their campus.

Webster University students who wish to study abroad on an international partner or short-term faculty-led Webster program are also required to apply through the Office of Study Abroad. No transfer credit from another institution or program will be accepted unless prior approval has been granted by Webster University. Applications to unaffiliated programs will only be approved in rare and exceptional circumstances.

Degree-seeking undergraduates at Webster University in the United States who wish to study abroad at an international campus should make sure that they have met the following approval criteria for study abroad.

Students should:

- Be enrolled at a Webster University campus in the United States.
- Have earned at least 15 undergraduate credit hours at Webster University.
- Be prepared to register for at least 6 credit hours per eight-week term (at least 12 credit hours per full semester term) at the international location, maintaining full-time status.
